

ARTICLE VI

Flood Plain Regulations

6.1 PURPOSE

The regulations contained in this Article, governing the development and use of land subject to flooding, are established for the following purposes:

- 6.11 To prevent unwise developments from increasing the flood or drainage hazards to others;
- 6.12 To protect new buildings and major improvements to buildings from flood damage;
- 6.13 To protect human life and health from the hazards of flooding;
- 6.14 To lessen the burden on the taxpayer for flood control projects, repairs to flood-damaged public facilities and utilities, and flood rescue and relief operations;
- 6.15 To maintain property values and a stable tax base by minimizing the potential for creating flood blight areas; and
- 6.16 To make federally subsidized flood insurance available for property in the county by fulfilling the requirements of the National Flood Insurance Program.

6.2 FLOOD PLAIN ORDINANCE

For regulations, see the Bureau County Ordinance regulating development in the Special Flood Hazard Areas adopted January 8, 1990 and amended May 11, 2011.
